Hans Heysen
One of Australia's greatest artists

Callum Morton 'Ghost World'
Children's Art Centre, GoMA Large-scale installation directly inspired by the artist's ongoing interest in architecture.

Joe Rootsey: Queensland
Aboriginal Painter 1918–63
This retrospective exhibition celebrates the art of Joe Alimindjin Rootsey, one of the first Indigenous people in Queensland to be recognised as a contemporary artist.

Simryn Gill: "Gathering" Simryn's work considers questions of place and history, and how they might intersect with personal and collective experience. Using objects, language, and photographs, she conveys a deep interest in material culture, and in the ways that meaning can transform and translate into different contexts.

Whats on in September

Valentino, Retrospective: Past/Present/Future' is a major exhibition developed by the renowned institution, Les Arts Décoratifs, Paris. It explores the work of the celebrated Italian fashion house Valentino, known around the world for its sophisticated, timeless design and glamorous clientele.

Multiple Choice
a Collection-based exhibition examining the Gallery's diverse holdings of artists' multiples: from record albums to ceramics, posters, books and toys.
